New on the Hill

Updates from Loewen

Red Sparrow

Flavours of VIETNAM

Newest to this enclave's array of dining spots is Red Sparrow, a new restaurant that offers a taste of Vietnam right from the heart of the Hill. Featuring classic Vietnamese comfort foods, their dishes include savoury Vietnamese pancakes, chicken or beef pho, banh mi, grilled BBQ and collagen Hot Pots—served piping hot with Vietnamese wine, herbal tea or exquisite dark roast Vietnamese coffee. Like a true authentic Vietnamese restaurant, their homemade broth is infused with imported spices and aromatic herbs, simmered for hours and made fresh daily to guarantee a mouth-watering experience.

Fresh NEW TASTE

Fans of Morsels will be excited to know that they are switching out their a la carte menus for more streamlined sharing set menus. Guests can choose from a selection of new Sharing or Omakase Menus that feature a variety of small plates, mains and desserts that are perfect for communal dining.

Chef-Owner Petrina Loh proudly showcases the award-winning restaurant's produce-centric dishes in the new menu, which includes the tender Truffle Braised Korean Abalone. Finished with an artistic splash of squid ink vinaigrette and pickled wood ear fungus, this abalone dish is a treat for both the eyes and the taste buds. For a bold and unexpected flavour, try the new Silkie Fowl—a clever merriment of Chinese black chicken soup and ang chow chicken.

Your favourite contemporary lifestyle and education spot, Loewen by Dempsey Hill, has some new updates for both couples and families.

A Chat with THE GOWN WAREHOUSE

Planning a wedding but struggling to pick out a wedding gown? Eunice Ng, from The Gown Warehouse here on the Hill, shares some tips on how to pick the perfect dress for your special day.

What is unique about The Gown Warehouse?

The Gown Warehouse is a lifestyle concept bridal gown specialist store. We focus on offering a wide variety of wedding gown designs based on the latest trends, as well as providing a holistic shopping experience. Our unique displays and quarterly updates of in-house designs ensure that every bride that steps into our boutique will be spoilt for choice.

What inspired you to set up a bridal boutique?

As girly girls, we are hopeless romantics and have always loved weddings! We were inspired by "Say Yes to the Dress!", one of our favorite TV shows, and thought it would be nice if that concept was brought to Singapore—showcasing beautiful dresses for brides to try with no hard selling but focusing on guiding them instead.

What is special about your latest collection?

Our latest collection emphasises relaxed beauty without any details that hamper. The designs feature appliques and lace embroidery that can be easily coordinated with your wedding theme and will look divine and magical on your special day.

What styles and trends do you think we'll be seeing more of in 2018?

We are seeing 3 trends for this year:

1. Brides are embracing colored gowns instead of the usual ivory and white. Blush and champagne tones are the colors to go for.
2. Metallic elements are everywhere. From wedding dresses to jewelry and hair accessories, mixed metal tones of rose gold and silver have become increasingly popular.
3. Spaghetti straps are trending now, especially for low-back gowns. They allow brides to have a little more security on top without needing to go for a fully-covered look.

The Gown Warehouse

What kind of materials and embellishments should brides look out for?

Crystals, pearls and raw opals are some of the embellishments that can create a more intricate and avant-garde design on dresses and headpieces. There is no specific material to look out for; it really depends on the style the bride is going for.

Any other tips for brides picking or customizing their gown?

One way to customize the look of your gown is with accessories. We offer more than 50 veil styles of various lengths that can change the look and feel of the dress. I worked with a bride who added a cathedral-length veil that trailed on the floor—perfect for her grand church wedding! Our sales coordinator can help you pick out dresses and accessories suitable for your body shape and closest to style you like.
